The Self-Help Resource Center (also known as the Family Law Facilitator's office) will provide instructions on how to complete and file all the necessary forms to complete the emancipation process. They can answer your procedural questions and explain the court process. The Resource Center cannot give you legal advice or tell you what to say to the judge, but staff can review your forms and tell you if they are complete and correct before you file. The Self-Help Resource Center CANNOT represent you in court.

This is an instructional guide to filing a Petition for Declaration of Emancipation of a Minor, designed to explain the process of filing your paperwork and going to court.

Fillable, printable pdf versions of the Judicial Council forms contained in this packet are available online at <https://www.courts.ca.gov/forms.htm>. You can print and handwrite forms, or type them online and print them out to file.

If you have further questions or concerns regarding your emancipation case, you may wish to consult with an attorney, use the assistance of a paralegal or typing service, or do self-research at the Tulare County Law Library (on the ground floor of the Visalia Courthouse, with Law Library computer terminals also available in the Self-Help Resource Center in the Porterville courthouse) or on the California Courts' Self-Help website at <https://www.courts.ca.gov/1044.htm>. INSTRUCTIONS AND GENERAL INFORMATION

What Is Emancipation?

Emancipation is the legal process by which a minor can be legally considered an adult before turning 18. Once a child is emancipated, the parents or legal guardian(s) no longer have custody of them and are no longer responsible for supporting the child. They still must give permission in order for the minor to marry.

A person under the age of 18 is considered emancipated if: 1) The person has entered into a valid marriage, 2) the person is on active duty with the US armed forces, or 3) the person receives a declaration of emancipation

An emancipated child can get medical care, apply for a work permit, sign up for school or college, and decide where to live without parental permission. However, emancipated children still go to Juvenile court if they break the law. Obtaining a declaration of emancipation from a judge is one way to become emancipated. However, you must convince a judge that you meet all of these requirements:

- You are at least 14 years old
- You do not want to live with your parents
- Your parents do not mind if you move out
- You can handle your own money
- You have a legal way to make money
- Emancipation would be good for you

What are some alternatives to emancipation?

- Counseling or mediation
- Live with another adult relative
- Guardianship
- Help from public or private agencies
- Agree with your parents/guardian to live somewhere else without going to court

If you want to learn more about the laws about emancipation, Family Code sections 7000-43 and California Rules of Court, Rules 270 and 1437 set out the requirements for emancipation. Family Code section 7050 lists the effects of the emancipation. Family Code sections 7120-23 state the procedure and notice requirements and requirements for issuance of the Declaration of Emancipation.

What Forms do I Need?

This packet contains the forms you need to request emancipation of a minor. The form “Emancipation Pamphlet” (Form EM-100-INFO) will give you a basic overview on the process and purpose of emancipation. The instructions in this packet will explain how to complete these forms and the process of submitting them to the Clerk’s Office for filing, as well as the court process you will follow to request your order of emancipation. You will fill out the following Judicial Council forms to start your request:

- ❖ Form # EM-100 - Petition for Declaration of Emancipation of a Minor
- ❖ Form # EM-109 - Notice of Hearing – Emancipation of a Minor
- ❖ Form # EM-115 - Emancipation of Minor Income and Expense Declaration
- ❖ Form # EM- 130 - Declaration of Emancipation of Minor After Hearing

You must file your forms in the county in which you live.

Fee Waiver: There is a $435 fee for filing these forms. If you would like to request the court to excuse you from paying this fee, you will file the form FW-001 (Application for Waiver of Court Fees and Costs) and FW-003 (Order on Application for Waiver of Court Fees and Costs). These forms are available online, in the clerk's office, or at the Self-Help Resource Center.

You will complete your forms by typing or printing them legibly in blue or black ink. Detailed instructions for completing and filing your forms are included below.

Complete the following forms:

1. Form # EM-100 - Petition for Declaration of Emancipation of a Minor

- Caption – at the top of the page, write your name, address and telephone number. Where the caption states “In the Matter Of (name):” write your full name. Under the caption “Petition for Declaration of Emancipation of Minor,” leave the boxes blank for the judge to check after reviewing your Petition.
- Section 1 – Write your name and address.
- Section 3 – Write in your birthdate.
- Section 4 – Write in your mother's name and current address. You will need to include your mother's signed consent on the Notice of Hearing – Emancipation of a Minor, Form #EM-109 or explain why you should not be required to give her notice of your petition.
- Section 5 – Write in your father's name and current address. You will need to include your father's signed consent on the Notice of Hearing – Emancipation of a Minor, Form #EM-109 or explain why you should not be required to give him notice of your petition.
- Section 6 – complete this section if you have a legal guardian. Include your guardian's name and current address. You will need to include your guardian's signed consent on the Notice of Hearing – Emancipation of a Minor, Form #EM-109 or explain why you should not be required to give him or her notice of your petition.
- Section 7 – complete this section if there is any person other than a parent or legal guardian who is legally entitled to custody of you.
- Section 8 – If you are a dependent child or probation ward of the Juvenile court, write your Juvenile Court case number (if you know it), the county of the case, and your social worker or probation officer's name. Have them complete and sign their consent on the Notice of Hearing – Emancipation of a Minor, Form #EM-109. Date and sign at the bottom of the form.
- Page 2 - Leave this page blank for the court to complete.

2. Form EM-109 - Notice of Hearing – Emancipation of a Minor

- Caption – at the top of the page, write your name, address and telephone number. Where the caption states “In the Matter Of (name):” write your full name.
- Notice of Hearing – if you are having your parent(s) or guardian, social worker, probation officer or district attorney sign the consent and waiver of notice, check the box under Notice of Hearing that states “Consent and Waiver of Notice” in the title.
- Section 1 – Write your full legal name (the same one you wrote in the caption under “In the Matter of.”
- Section 2 - Leave section 2 blank for the clerk to complete if a hearing date is set.

- Date and Sign - Under the bold statement beginning with “To Parents.”
- “Consent and Waiver of Notice” – have your parents, legal guardian, social worker or the district attorney date and sign as appropriate (see instructions for Form #EM-100, above).

3. Form EM-115 - Emancipation of Minor Income and Expense Declaration

- Caption – at the top of the page, write your name, address and telephone number. Where the caption states “In the Matter Of (name):” write your full name.
- Section 1 – write in your full legal name, address and telephone number, state how long you have been living at this address and with whom you live.
- Section 2 – write in your date of birth.
- Section 3 – State whether you are attending school (and if so, where) or that you are not attending school and what grade you completed.
- Section 4 – If you are working, state what your occupation is (what you are doing for a job).
- Section 5 – State that you are employed (and where, and when you started) or that you are not employer (and when you last worked and how much you earned).
- Section 6 - check the appropriate box indicating whether you have applied for, will apply, or are receiving cash aid.
- Section 7 - List all sources of income and amounts. If you like, you may attach copies of your recent paystubs (black out personal information such as Social Security number, account number, etc.)
- Section 8 – List the dollar value of each asset in your name (property, money, stocks, vehicle, etc. of value).
- Section 9 - List each of your monthly expenses.
- Signature – date and sign at the bottom of the page.

4. Form EM-130 – Declaration of Emancipation After Hearing

- Caption – at the top of the page, write your name, address and telephone number. Where the caption states “In the Matter Of (name):” write your full name.
- Leave the rest of the form blank for the judge to complete.

Filing the Documents

Make 1 copy of each of the following forms and file the original and copy with the court clerk in the Visalia Courthouse, Clerk of the Court, located at 221 S. Mooney Blvd, Room 201, Visalia, CA 93291 OR the South County Justice Center, Court Clerk’s window located at 300 E. Olive Ave, Porterville, CA 93257:

- Form # EM-100 - Petition for Declaration of Emancipation of a Minor
- Form # EM-109 - Notice of Hearing – Emancipation of a Minor
- Form # EM-115 - Emancipation of Minor Income and Expense Declaration
- Form # EM- 130 - Declaration of Emancipation of Minor After Hearing
- FW-001 – Request to Waive Court Fees and FW-003 – Order on Court Fee Waiver (if applying for fee waiver) - original and 1 copy each (if requesting to waive filing fees)

NOTE: If you are a dependent or ward of the Juvenile Court, you must file your paperwork in your Juvenile case at the Juvenile Justice Center clerk’s office, located at 11200 Ave. 368, Room 201, Visalia CA 93291 (559) 738-2300, or in any clerk’s office. The case will still be heard in Family Court, however, in either Visalia or Porterville.

When you file in the clerk's office, the Court Clerk will file the forms and return your filed copies to you when you file. of the Fee Waiver forms (if you qualify for a Fee Waiver based on section 5a or 5b, otherwise the Request will be sent to the judge for review). The Petition, Notice of Hearing, and Income and Expense Declaration will be kept and sent to the judge for review. The Declaration of Emancipation of Minor After Hearing form will be kept in the file to be signed by the judge after hearing if the judge sets a hearing.

Next Steps

Within 30 days, one of three things will happen:

1. Decision Without Hearing:

After reviewing your papers, the judge may grant your request without a hearing if the judge finds that (1) you have gotten all necessary consents and waivers signed and (2) that emancipation is not contrary to your best interest. In that case, the clerk will provide you with an endorsed-filed copy of the order (which is signed on the second page of your Petition (EM-100)). If you provide the court with a stamped, self-addressed envelope, the clerk's office can mail the order back to you directly. You may need to show these copies to employers, landlords, doctors, school officials or others who would usually require parental consent.

2. Hearing:

The judge may want more information before making a decision. In that case, the court makes an order on the second page of the Petition (EM-100) in the section entitled "Order Prescribing Notice." The court will indicate whether notice of the hearing is required and who (if anyone) must be served with notice. This hearing will be set on a date within 30 days of the order setting a hearing. Additionally, the court may request the Family Court Services department of the court to conduct a limited investigation for additional information.

If a hearing is set, the clerk will write the date, time, and department (courtroom) number on the Notice of Hearing (#EM-109). If the judge orders you to give notice of the hearing, you must have the server (someone other than you, 18 years or older), serve (give or mail) a copy of the Petition (EM-100) and Notice of Hearing (EM-109) to each person listed as requiring notice. The person who serves the copies must complete and sign the Proof of Personal Service (FL-330), or Proof of Service by Mail (FL-335). A separate proof of service form is required for each person who is served. You or the server must file the original and one copy of the Proof(s) of Service with the clerk's office.

3. Denial Without Hearing

After reviewing your Petition, the judge may deny your petition without setting a hearing. If this happens, you can call the clerk's office at 559-750-5000 Option 3 to schedule a hearing. If you schedule a hearing yourself, you must have your server serve the Petition and Notice of Hearing on everyone who has not signed the consent and waiver of service on your Notice of Hearing (EM-109) and file the original and one copy of each Proof of Service (FL-330 or FL-335) with the clerk's office.

At the hearing, your Petition may be granted, or it may still be denied. If it is denied, you may seek review by filing a Writ of Mandate. (Even if the Petition is granted, your parents/guardians can file a Writ of Mandate as well if they disagree with the decision). A Writ of Mandate must be filed with the Court of Appeal. If you want to file a Writ, please seek the advice and guidance of an attorney.

IF YOUR PETITION IS GRANTED, you can file the completed form Emancipated Minor's Application to California Department of Motor Vehicles (EM-140) with the Department of Motor Vehicles. As directed in the form, remember to attach a certified copy of your Declaration of Emancipation (which you can obtain from the clerk's office for a fee unless you obtain it within 60 days of the order and have a fee waiver). This Declaration is on page 2 of your Petition or, if emancipation was granted after hearing, is on Declaration of Emancipation of Minor After Hearing (EM-130).

Further Assistance and Resources

You can learn a lot a lot more about emancipation by reading Legal Services for Children's Emancipation Manual, available online at Emancipation-Manual-September-2018.pdf \(lsc-sf.org\). This manual has further information about the emancipation process.

- family counseling or mediation services between you and your parents
- living with another responsible adult (aunt, uncle, grandparent, or family friend)
- seeking assistance from public and private agencies
- an informal agreement with your parents allowing you to live outside your home

EMANCIPATION PAMPHLET

*This pamphlet provides only basic information about emancipation proceedings.
If you need additional information, you may wish to consult an attorney.*

WHAT IS EMANCIPATION?

Emancipation is a legal procedure that frees children from the custody and control of their parents or guardians before they reach the age of majority. (In California, this is age 18.) If you become emancipated, you will be able to do certain things without your parent's consent, such as:

- consent to medical treatment
- apply for a work permit
- enroll in school or college

You will also give up your right to be supported by your parents.

Even if you are emancipated:

- You must still attend school.
- You cannot get married without parental consent.
- You probably will remain under juvenile court jurisdiction, if you commit a crime.

IF YOU HAVE A LEGAL GUARDIAN:

All references in this pamphlet to parent or parents include legal guardians or guardians.

HOW DO I BECOME EMANCIPATED?

There are three ways you can become emancipated:

1. You can get married (This requires parental consent and permission from the court.)

WHAT DO I DO IF THE JUDGE GRANTS MY PETITION FOR EMANCIPATION?

If the judge grants your petition for emancipation after a hearing is held or without a hearing, you must take your papers back to the clerk's office and file them. The clerk will file the original declaration of emancipation, and give you copies to keep as proof of emancipation. You may need to show these copies to employers, landlords, doctors, school officials, or others who would otherwise require parental consent.

If you want to notify the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) about your emancipation, complete an Emancipated Minor's Application to California Department of Motor Vehicles (EM-140) form and take it to the DMV along with a certified copy of the declaration of emancipation.

IS EMANCIPATION PERMANENT?

Emancipation is usually permanent. However, if there are statements on your petition that are not true, or if you become unable to support yourself, the court may set aside the declaration of emancipation.

DO I HAVE CHOICES OTHER THAN EMANCIPATION?

Emancipation is only one of several alternatives available to you if you feel you cannot live with your parents. You may want to consider other options such as:

- set a hearing on your petition to be conducted within 30 days thereafter.

The clerk will provide you with an endorsed filed copy of the judge's order.

Declaration of emancipation without hearing

If the judge finds that all notice and consent requirements have been met or waived, and that emancipation is not contrary to your best interests, the judge may grant your petition without a hearing.

Setting a hearing and giving notice

If the judge wants more information, a hearing will be held within 30 days of the order prescribing notice and setting for hearing. If the judge orders the matter set for hearing, the clerk will notify the district attorney of the time and date of the hearing. The judge may require that you give notice to your parents and other people of the time and place of the hearing. This is very important, because the judge may be very strict about making sure that your parents were given proper notice before granting an emancipation petition.

Notice is provided by giving or mailing a copy of the emancipation petition to each person the judge lists for you. An adult, 18 years or older, must personally give or mail the copies for you as soon as possible after the hearing date is set, and complete a Proof of Service form to be filed with the clerk.

2. You can join the armed forces. (This requires parental consent and acceptance by the service.)

3. You can obtain a declaration of emancipation from a judge.

This pamphlet tells you only about how to be declared emancipated by a judge. If you want to be declared emancipated by a judge, you must convince the judge that you meet ALL of the following requirements:

1. You are at least 14 years old.
2. You willingly want to live separate and apart from your parents with the consent or acquiescence of your parents. (Your parents do not object to you living apart from them.)
3. You can manage your own finances.
4. You have a source of income that does not come from any illegal activity.
5. Emancipation would not be contrary to your best interests; it is good for you.

HOW DO I GET DECLARED EMANCIPATED BY A JUDGE?

You will need to complete certain forms and file them with the court. You can get blank forms to fill out from the court clerk's office. The forms you must fill out are:

- Petition for Declaration of Emancipation of Minor, Order Prescribing Notice, Declaration of Emancipation, and Order Denying Petition (EM-100)
- Emancipation of Minor—Income and Expense Declaration (EM-115)

- Notice of Hearing (EM-109)
- Declaration of Emancipation of Minor After Hearing (EM-130)

Emancipation petition

You must file a Petition for Declaration of Emancipation of Minor form (EM-100) in the county in which you live. (Check with your local clerk's office to find out which division of the court handles emancipations. If you are a dependent or ward of the juvenile court, the petition must be filed in juvenile court.) Only you may petition the court for emancipation. You will be asked to provide a verifiable residence address. You must also complete and attach to the petition an Emancipation of Minor—Income and Expense Declaration form (EM-115).

Filing fee or waiver

You may be required to pay a fee to file your emancipation petition. Ask the clerk if a fee is required. If you cannot afford to pay the fee, you can file an application to have the fees waived, including an Application for Waiver of Court Fees and Costs form and an Order on Application of Court Fees and Costs form. Unless waived, the petitioner shall pay the filing fee as specified. The ability or inability to pay the filing fee is not in and of itself evidence of the financial responsibility of the minor as required for emancipation.

Filling out the forms

- Print or type ALL information requested on the forms.
- Sign and date the petition.
- Include a statement explaining your living situation, why you want to be emancipated, and how you are supporting yourself. If you have children, tell how you are supporting them. You could also include letters from your employer and your landlord.

- If you do not know where your parents or guardians live, you must tell the court when you last saw your parents and what efforts you have made to find out where your parents live.
- If you know where your parents live, but they refuse to sign the consent, you must get a hearing date from the clerk, and give notice of the hearing to your parents.
- If you know where your parents live, but you do not wish to notify one or both of them about this petition, you must state ALL your reasons and request the court to waive notification to your parents.

Filing the petition and the other forms

After you have completed the forms and all necessary attachments, and obtained your parents' signatures (if possible), take the forms and the attachments to the clerk's office for filing. (When you pick up the blank forms, ask the clerk how many copies of each form you will need to bring with you. Be sure to keep a copy for yourself.) When you get to the court, tell the clerk that you are filing a petition for emancipation and show the clerk your papers. The clerk will keep at least one copy of your petition. The clerk will either give or direct you to give the petition to the judge. Within 30 days from the filing of the petition, the judge will either

- grant your petition; or
- deny your petition; or
